

Horndean Surgery Patient Group

Horndean Surgery Blendworth Lane Horndean PO8 0AA

The Partners of the Practice are keen to encourage and support the Patient Participation Group.

The group seeks to increase the liaison between patients and the practice for the overall improvement of health care and services.

Mr Derek Chard has agreed to act as facilitator for the group and he will be pleased to hear from anyone interested in joining this venture.

If you would like to make any comments or suggestions or know more about the group, complete the return slip.

I would like to know more about the Patient Participation Group and agree to my details being passed to Dereck Chard
